Terms and Conditions of Purchase

Westpac agrees to transmit cleared funds to the beneficiary in the currency and foreign jurisdiction nominated by you ("the Service").

Westpac will provide the Service by transferring funds to the beneficiary's overseas account directly or through another bank or banks ("telegraphic transfer"). Transmission of funds will occur on the date of your instructions or the next available business day. Under normal circumstances, funds should arrive in the beneficiary's account within 1 to 2 business days. However, Westpac can give no general assurances on the timing of receipt of the funds by the beneficiary. Delays may occur for a number of reasons beyond Westpac's control. Westpac cannot be responsible for such delays.

Westpac Fees

Westpac will provide the Service in exchange for fees. Westpac's fee for the Service will be advised prior to purchase and the fee is payable by you. Information in respect to Westpac's fees and charges for the Service and Related Services are available on request at your nearest Westpac branch.
